OTHERS PRESENT: Superintendent Zimba, Jr./Sr. H.S. Principal Hartzell, Elementary Principal Aaron Fernald

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Lasceski

President Lasceski adopted the consent agenda presented in the board packet.

Recognition and Presentation:

Recognition to Cass City VFW Pst 3644 on scheduling the Huey Helicopter rides for the Fourth of July Festival.

400 riders took advantage of the opportunity with several not being able to.

Public Participation: None

Reports and Communications:

Summer school update: Attendance was 60 more students than last year, 39 students were from the High School. Parents liked the condensed version this year and the way that it was ran.

GTC/NCTL Mega Conference: Superintendent representatives from both the GTC and NCTL met to discuss combining Conferences to create a Mega-Conference. This will give more options, flexibility in enrollment changes and better balance equal completion. (A copy is in the Secretary's book)

Bleachers and gym floor are done. Counter tops will be arriving and will be installed. First week of August the playground will be put into place. Thumb Psychological is interested in leasing out the old playground.

Strategic Plan is on track and will start back up meeting. Stacey Bliss, Alice Zaleski and George Batty will be the Board representatives.

Unfinished Business: None

New Business:

A motion was made by Janie Meeker, supported by Stacey Bliss, to hire Renee Wilkowski as a one-on-one parapro at the Jr/ Sr High School. All Ayes. MOTION CARRIED.

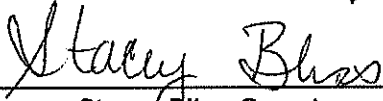

A motion was made by Janie Meeker, supported by Scott Richards, to hire Caitlyn Middaugh as an elementary parapro. All Ayes. MOTION CARRIED.

A motion was made by Janie Meeker, supported by George Batty, to hire Brett Ross as Athletic Director. All Ayes. MOTION CARRIED.

Other:

The Board will meet on August 12, 2022 at Rolling Hills Golf Course to go over the old Board goals and set new ones for the upcoming school year.
