Allison Zimba and Kathy LaPonise presented a grant from MDHHS RFP for Child and Adolescent Health Care Program which would pay for planning a clinic, in which the hospital would actually provide a nurse practitioner and TAPS counselor for a part-time clinic in one of our buildings.

Christin Hempton presented what she is doing in her Career and College Readiness with all grade levels in the Jr/Sr High School.

Tammy Schefka represented Amy Tamlyn on what has been happening in each building. In the Elementary there will be a Christmas Program for parents and Caitlyn Lowe is now home with her baby. Both the Elementary and Jr/Sr High School collected money for the Lowe's by having a jeans day. At the Jr/Sr High School the Veteran's Day Assembly had a lot of great feedback, Bill Hartzell applied for and received a $5,000.00 grant for concessions improvement, a talent show is scheduled for Dec. 21 and the SAT scores for 8th and 9th graders are above state average.

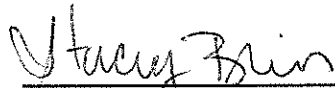

Student Representative Chloe Jaworski reported on the Jr High dance having over 90 students attending and had a very good time and Veteran's Days volunteers did an amazing job helping out to make the day a success.
